Hikers found trespassing the Sungai Besi-Ulu Kelang Elevated Expressway (Suke) construction site at Taman Saga, Ampang, risk being apprehended and handed over to the police.

Suke general manager Faizal Othman said harsh action would be taken against trespassers as it concerned safety.

"The area is an active construction site and only authorised personnel are allowed in," he said.

Faizal added that hikers force open the hoarding around the site to access the hiking trail at Bukit Saga.

"Even with signs to clearly indicate that no one is allowed in, they still come in," he said.

Faizal cited a rockfall incident in January last year when a huge boulder fell from a height of more than 35m from the Suke construction site into a pool of mud, covering cars and houses. Ten houses along Jalan Saga 28 were affected.

Faizal was speaking at a dialogue with members of the Selangor Bukit Ampang Hikers Association.

Also present were Teratai assemblyman Bryan Lai and Ampang Jaya Municipal Council (MPAJ) representatives.

Lai said his office would be working with Suke, MPAJ and the Selangor Forestry Department to determine a suitable hiking route once the project was completed.

"Bukit Saga is a forest reserve and comes under the purview of the forestry department.

"Hikers should not be climbing here. Nevertheless, we are in discussions to find a safe hiking trail when the major physical works are completed by the middle of next year," he said.

Under Section 47 (1) of the National Forestry Act 1984, only authorised persons can enter a forest reserve.

Also in the pipeline is an estimated RM3mil food and recreation centre that will be built at the foothills of Bukit Saga once Suke and a nearby housing project are completed.

MPAJ Landscape Maintenance unit head Mohd Jelani Aman said once the centre was built it could become a popular tourist destination.

"The roadside stalls at Jalan Saga 29 will be relocated there, which is more suitable than the current location which is by the side of a steep slope," he said, adding there would be parking bays and toilet facilities.

Hiker Chai Meng Weng said most of the trespassers were outsiders.

"We are hoping to find an alternative route that would be more suitable," he said, adding that hikers also wanted the hiking trails legalised.

AMPANG JAYA 22 Jan. - Sebanyak 23 warga China termasuk dua wanita ditahan dalam serbuan di dua buah banglo mewah di 20 Trees West, Taman Melawati, di sini hari ini.

Serbuan kira-kira pukul 1 petang dijalankan Bahagian Maksiat, Judi dan Kongsi Gelap (D7) Ibu pejabat Polis Kontinjen Selangor dengan kerjasama Bukit Aman itu dibuat selepas menerima maklumat awam mengenai kegiatan mempromosikan judi online (dalam talian) secara haram.

Pegawai Turus D7 Selangor,

Deputi Superintenden Mohd. Khaizam Ahmad Shahabudin berkata, sindiket itu dipercayai telah berpangkalan di negara ini selama dua bulan.

“Hasil siasatan awal mendapati, mereka hanya mentadbir urusan judi dalam talian dari sini dan pelanggan mereka berada di China. Kesemua suspek mendakwa tahu kerja mereka sebagai pengendali (admin) judi online, malah sebelum mula bekerja, mereka semua dikehendaki menghadiri kursus, namun ekoran gaji ditawarkan sebanyak RM3,000 sebulan, mereka tidak kisah,” katanya.

Beliau berkata demikian ketika ditemui selepas operasi selama lima jam tersebut tamat.

Menurut Mohd. Khaizam, dalam serbuan tersebut, pihaknya merampas masing-masing 10 komputer dan komputer riba serta 85 telefon pintar.
